What's New In?

Nick Generator is a software application with a pretty self-explanatory name - it gives you the possibility of generating random nicknames based on a user-defined parameter. The app can be seamlessly handled by inexperienced users. For example, you can use it if you frequently access online chat rooms. This is a portable program, so Nick Generator does not come with an installation package. In other words, you can save the tool to a removable device (like a USB flash drive), store it on any computer and directly run its executable file. The most important aspect is that the Windows Registry does not receive new entries, and no leftover files can be found on the hard drive after deleting the tool. Furthermore, you can always have Nick Generator with you when you're on the go. The interface of the program is based on a small window with an intuitive layout. The 'what you see is what you get' principle applies to Nick Generator, since there are no other features available, except for the ones visible in the main app frame. So, all you have to do is write a base name and press a button to generate a random nickname; Nick Generator basically outputs the base name along with a suffix, prefix or both, represented by letters, symbols and numbers. The straightforward program runs on a very low amount of CPU and system memory, has a good response time, and instantly generates results. No error dialogs have been displayed throughout our testing and Nick Generator did not freeze or crash; we haven't experienced any difficulties in our tests. Unfortunately, Nick Generator has never received any updates. What's New in version 1.21: Fixed a few compatibility issues. What's New in version 1.20: Fixed a crash.
